

ISCPA staff profile

Kalli Hurst

Position: Learning Coordinator

Alma mater: Iowa State University

How long have you been with ISCPA? I started as the learning coordinator with ISCPA in late June of 2022. Within the first two weeks, I traveled with the team to New Orleans for a conference of state societies from across the country. It was a great way to hit the ground running and integrate with the team quickly. I enjoy that every day on the job is different and brings its own unique challenges.

What is your professional background/experience?

I have an extensive background in hotel banquet management and catering management, as well as special events and wedding coordination. I have a passion for the service and events industry. One of my favorite things is watching the details and preparation come to life the day of an event.

What do you like to do for fun? In my spare time I like to read, travel, spend time with family and play with my chocolate Lab, Scout. I really enjoy cooking and baking. Scotcheroots are my favorite thing to bake. I draw inspiration for my cooking from family recipes as well as from watching cooking shows on TV. I like to experiment with different spices and use fresh vegetables from my garden in the summertime.

Do you have a favorite vacation destination? My two favorite places I have traveled to are Colorado and Jamaica.

What is the best thing you've read recently? The most recent book I read was 'The Midnight Library' by Matt Haig. One of my favorite books is 'The Life We Bury' by Allen Eskens.

A night out or a night in? I enjoy spending time at home cuddling up with my dog and a good book or movie. On the weekends, you can find me at a family gathering or working on projects around the house. On the occasions I do go out, I enjoy finding somewhere with a pool table to play a few games.

What is one of your goals as an ISCPA staff member? I look forward to meeting new members and Helping inspire younger generations to become CPAs and members of ISCPA.
